

Membership Information & Application

Women Lawyers' Association of NSW Incorporated (WLANSW) is the peak body representing women lawyers in NSW. WLANSW has been committed to improving the status and working conditions of women lawyers since 1952. Our members include solicitors, barristers, judicial officers, academics, corporate counsel, lawyers and law students. WLANSW is a non-profit organisation and our President and Committee members do not receive remuneration for their involvement. Your membership fees enable WLANSW to engage Kathryn McKenzie, our Executive Officer, to attend to administration and assist us to carry out our various objectives.

WLANSW is a member of "Australian Women Lawyers" (AWL) which was formed in 1997. Our President, Louise Byrne, is the current director for NSW on the AWL Board. AWL is funded by each State and Territory Women Lawyers Association. A percentage of WLANSW membership fees collected is paid directly to AWL.

WLANSW holds frequent seminars and events which provide networking, mentoring and educational opportunities to enable you to enhance your professional development. WLANSW has been active in lobbying Government and promoting law reform, particularly in relation to issues affecting women and children. Submissions have been made in relation to various issues such as anti-discrimination law, industrial equity, criminal law, family law, women's health, legal aid, child care and gender bias in the legal profession. Please visit our website for further details.
