Women Lawyers NSW Achievement Awards

6-8pm Thursday 9th November 2006

Sheraton on the Park, Castlereagh Room, 161 Elizabeth St, Sydney

Guest Speakers & Participating Organisations:

Michael Slattery QC, President, NSW Bar Association

June McPhie, President, The Law Society of NSW

Laura Wells, Director, Criminal Law Review Division, Attorney General's Department

Anna McPhee, Director, Equal Opportunity for Women in the Workplace Agency

The launch of our Annual Awards will culminate with an annual Awards & Fundraising Dinner commencing 2007 and also provide an opportunity for nominations of Life Membership honours, a structure to recognise the achievements of women in law and a vehicle to fund our "Advancing Women in Law Programs":

- Annual free seminars "Law as a Career" & "Coming to the Bar" usually held during Law Week
- Bi-annual Female Bar Readers Welcome & Networking lunches and ongoing sponsorship of the Female Bar Reader's Room at Frederick Jordan Chambers.
- Veronica Pike Awards Fund. Established by the generosity of founding member and pioneering lawyer, Veronica Pike, the annual Awards & Fundraising Dinner will revive the Fund and provide additional awards and support for students of law.
- Development of Mentoring Programs for Female Partners and Women in Law. We already support and assist with various Student Mentoring Programs that will also be progressed.
- Female Barristers Networking Events. This program will facilitate introductions and networking in an informal environment with partners and solicitors to progress the equitable briefing policy.
- 'Golden Girls' Annual Lunch will enable members and colleagues to meet socially with our pioneering women of law and share their experiences.
- A range of seminars and events including distinguished members of the judiciary, expert practitioners, speakers and trainers providing a variety of networking and development opportunities to enhance your personal and professional advancement.
