

GO FUND

Gynaecological Oncology

20 years

A Special Occasion, Celebrating...

GYNAECOLOGICAL
ONCOLOGY

The anniversary of the establishment of the Gynaecological Cancer Centre at the Royal Hospital for Women and honouring Professor Neville Hacker and his team

Also

The presentation of the Karen Campaign Awards

Date Thursday 23rd November 2006 Time 7.00pm for 7.30pm
Venue Bayside Gallery at the Sydney, Convention & Exhibition Centre, Darling Drive, Darling Harbour
(Take escalator up to level 1 from the main entrance located at the northern end of the Centre)
RSVP by Friday 17th November 2006 to: Go Fund, (02) 9382 6273 or gofund@sesiahs.health.nsw.gov.au

Master of Ceremonies:

Stuart Wagstaff

Stuart Wagstaff needs no introduction. We thank and welcome this elegant, sophisticated, much admired gentleman - a veteran of theatre, television and stage for over 50 years.

Entertainment:

Peter Cousins

Peter Cousins is one of Australia's most outstanding musical theatre performers. He was The Phantom in London's West End production of The Phantom of the Opera. We are privileged that this incredibly talented actor of stage and screen will be joining us.

Kaye Gordon

We are thrilled to have the lady who many consider one of the most dynamic female vocalists in the Australian Music Industry. Her amazing voice is "truly captivating".

GYNAECOLOGICAL ONCOLOGY

OUR MISSION

Beating gynaecological cancer

OUR AIM

To develop a blood-based screening test to diagnose ovarian cancer in early stages.

“The greatest gift that one human being can give another is the chance to live”

The GO Fund, a sub entity of the RHW Foundation Ltd, raises money for Awareness, Treatment and Prevention of gynaecological cancer and distributes major funding to the Garvan Institute for Research.

SYDNEY CONVENTION & EXHIBITION
CENTRE
DARLING
HARBOUR

Prof. Neville's 20 Years