

Invitation

You are cordially invited to join with us in celebrating UN Day 2009 on Friday 23rd October. The Association is hosting two events:

- The Cenotaph and wreath laying ceremony honouring Australia's contribution to UN Peace-keeping over 62 years; followed by
- The annual UN Day Luncheon in Parliament House.

The Cenotaph Ceremony will be held in Martin Place commencing 10:45 till 11:45am Friday 23rd October 2009.

The Guest of Honour is Major-General Tim Ford AO (retd) Chairman of the Australian Peace-keeping Memorial Committee and former Chief Military Advisor at the UN New York. A number of distinguished guests and members of the public will be laying wreaths. Music will be provided by the Protective Services Band and seating has been arranged.

The UN Day Luncheon, NSW Parliament House, Strangers Dining Room 12:30 for 1:00 pm Friday 23rd October 2009

The keynote address will be delivered by the eminent jurist the Hon Robert Ellicott QC, a former Attorney General, Judge of the Federal Court and longest serving board member of the Wayside Chapel. He will speak on Australia's future at the UN. The cost of the luncheon is $79 for members and their guests.

Members of the Consular Corps will be present at both events, and some will be laying wreaths at the Cenotaph.

Your presence at both or either of the events would be sincerely appreciated.

Please complete the attached form if you plan to attend the luncheon.

RSVP: 16 October 2009 by email office@unaansw.org.au copied to pairey@optusnet.com.au or leave a message at 9212 0998.
